'Hold a Sentence'

Hold a sentence is an activity that encourages children to remember a whole sentence while focusing on spelling and punctuation.

First listen to the adult say the sentence then repeat the sentence back. Do this at least 3 times. You could say the sentence in different voices e.g. quiet, loud, whisper, etc. Next help the adult write the sentence remembering to Fred Talk your sounds. Remember there might also be some red words to spell. Finally, the adult can hide their sentence and you can have a go writing it on your own. Check it together afterwards.

1: I can see three bright white sheep near the park.

2. The horse stole straw from down this huge road.

3. The better farmland was a long, wide square.

4. You did hear the flight crew scream when they found a third bonfire.

Proofread

Read the passage and circle the mistakes which includes both spelling mistakes and missing punctuation:

*my sister woz using mi harebrush i woz
sow angry*

Then rewrite the passage correctly in your jotter or type it.

Fluency

Choose a book for enjoyment to practise reading at speed and with accuracy. You should also be attempting to read with expression (to read with feeling and bring characters to life) and intonation (the rise and fall - pitch-of the voice when speaking).
