Writing	Spelling	The Tooseys	Reading for Enjoyment
Cold Task – Write a jungle explorer log. You find an old, mysterious wardrobe. You open the door and walk through. You are transported to a magical jungle that is out of this world!! Write an explorer's log of your journey. There are some tips in the PDF to help you get ideas.	Choose your spelling words with the 'soft g' rule. There are some suggested activities for you to practise your words in the PDF.	This week Trudy Scrumpy tells you all about her favourite game of Bird Spotting. Write and tell Trudy Scrumpy all about the most interesting bird you spot in your garden or on a walk this week. You could also draw and label a picture of the bird you spotted and identified.	Keep reading for enjoyment when you can! Here is the link for AR tests https://ukhosted26.renlearn.co.uk/2243939/default.aspx Activity: Story Scavenger Hunt – See if you can find answers to all the questions (in PDF) using your grammar skills!
Subtraction by counting up	Revision Consolidation Sheet	Number of the Day and Target Number	Telling the Time - AM and PM
This week we will revisit a useful strategy for subtraction. Counting from the smaller number to the bigger number is sometimes a quicker and easier strategy than taking away when the numbers in the sum are close together.	Have a go at a First Level revision sheet. There is also a Second Level sheet for extra challenge. Questions have been highlighted in red where we would like you to show your strategies.	There are 2 activities for you to have a go at: Number of the Day and Target Number. Choose your level of challenge. Have fun and do your best!	Have a go at the worksheet which revisits AM and PM. Then, look through the Learning Slides and select a Mild or Hot challenge.

If this is a bit tricky you can adapt the sums to involve 2-digit numbers in the same decade.
