Search for the e-book called "The King and his Wish".

'Hold a Sentence'

Hold a sentence is an activity that encourages children to remember a whole sentence while focusing on spelling and punctuation.

First listen to the adult say the sentence then repeat the sentence back. Do this at least 3 times. You could say the sentence in different voices e.g. quiet, loud, whisper, etc. Next help the adult write the sentence remembering to Fred Talk your sounds including special friends. Remember there might also be some red words to spell. Finally, the adult can hide their sentence and you can have a go writing it on your own. Check it together afterwards.

1: A hen fell in the pen.

2. I will jump on the big bed.

3. Put the milk on the bench.

4. I can jog and skip on the spot.
