A few ideas to get you started! *Eat healthily *Be positive *Make good choices *The dangers of alcohol misuse Think about what you know about the dangers of alcohol misuse and how it affects the human body. The notes were also altered to say 'Banksy of England' instead of Bank of England. Banksy had planned to throw notes from a building but changed his mind after some notes, which were given out at a festival, were actually used to buy things. Challenge If you could design a new bank note for people to spend, what would it look like? What pictures would you use? What colour would your bank note be? Would you include a famous person or someone you know? Design your own bank note. You could also try to find out: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• if you can find a picture of one of Banksy's bank notes;</li> <li>• how much the notes are worth;</li> <li>• what the most expensive piece of Banksy art ever sold is;</li> <li>• What counterfeit money is and how much of it police find.</li> </ul>

*Party Planner

1. Research different world religious festivals and name as many as you can. Remember to link these to its religion.
2. Plan your own religious festival party. Think about: What are the key aspects I need to include, what food would they have, what colours etc.
3. Once you have completed your research for this draw a detailed drawing of your festival party making sure to label everything and give reasons for your choice.
4. Self-assess your party using the success criteria and red, amber and green.

SC:

- I can explain different religious festivals
- I can take notes about the key features of religious festivals and use these to inform my knowledge and understanding
- I can create a detailed design of a festival party
- I can explain why I have included certain features linked to that religion
- I can explain the importance of certain features
