- 5 Teach your child what personal information they should not reveal online (YAPPY acronym).
- 6 Help your child learn to filter information online and navigate fact from fiction.
- 7 Navigate digital dilemmas with your child. Avoid using devices as rewards or punishments.
- 8 Balance green time and screen time at home. Focus on basic developmental needs.
- 9 Don't support your child to sign up for sites with age restrictions (e.g. 13+) if they're underage.
- 10 Learn more: Explore reliable resources for parents so you can educate yourself.

3 Questions to Ask Your Child Every Day

By Megan Conley @meganconley bit.ly/3QuestionsToAsk

Instead of: "How was your day today?"

Try: 1 "How were you brave today?"

2 "How were you kind today?"

3 "How did you fail today?"

(Let's celebrate it!)

Note: Ask yourself those three questions, too!

Remember to Claim

Working from home? Claim TAX back on added costs, plus now if your employer reimbursed your home office equipment costs, they're tax-free. In the How to claim tax back for working from home blog, those who have been required to work from home, and who have had increased costs, eg, heating or electricity, are entitled to claim a tax break. And for extra costs of up to £6/week, receipts aren't needed. Plus, now added to that blog is a section for those who bought home office equipment and whose firms paid them back. Normally as this is a 'benefit-in-kind' you'd need to pay tax and national insurance on it, but due to coronavirus, currently you needn't.
