Literacy

Writing

On last week's grid you were challenged to create your own Scottish acrostic poem. This week the challenge is to use the word HAGGIS to create another acrostic poem.

This can be an imaginary acrostic poem about the Haggis or you could use food facts to describe the Haggis.

Here is an example of an acrostic poem:

Beautiful country
Unique landscapes
Rivers and Lochs
No other place like it
Scotland

Numeracy

Multiplication

Counting in 3s. Can you count forward and backwards in 3s between 0-50.

Can you try it counting in 4s?

Find an adult or write on a piece of paper your 3 and 4 times tables.

IDL

Tartan is the traditional material that is used to make Scottish outfits. Most tartan is linked to a Scottish Clan. Can you research your surname on line and see if your name is the same as a Scottish Clan or ask an adult in your family they may know already.

What is a clan?

How many clans are there in Scotland?

What does the tartan from your clan look like?

Can you draw you tartan?

Can you create your own tartan?
