

P5A, P5B and P5/6 Home Learning

Date Issued: Tuesday 5th October

Date Due: Thursday 14th October

Please complete 4 core tasks (underlined). The other tasks are optional.

Please colour the circle to self-assess how you got on with the task.

green – easy

yellow – ok

red – difficult

Task 1: Maths

LI: To design a tiling pattern

During Maths week, we looked at tiling patterns and made our own in class.

Can you find any tiling patterns in your house? Perhaps you have tiled floor? If you can't see any tiling patterns, you might want to use a search engine on line like Google to find inspiration.

Have a go at designing your own tiling.

Task 2: Writing/Discussion

LI: To write a balanced argument

Choose from the following discussions and think of reasons for both sides of the argument.

- Should dogs be allowed off their lead in public spaces?
- Should we act on climate change?
- Should children be allowed to vote?

Present your work like this:

Yes	No
Because...	Because...

Task 3: Numeracy

LI: To organise numbers according to properties

Complete these sentences

- A multiple of a number is...
- An odd number is...
- An even number is...

When you have completed this, copy and complete the venn diagram below:

Remember: The middle part is for numbers that are BOTH.

Task 4: Spelling

LI: To spell words accurately using sounds, rules and strategies.

Collect an extra spelling list from your classroom and take it home. Practise your spellings however you like at home. You might want to do

- A wordsearch
- A spelling bee with another family member
- Look, Cover, Say, Write, Check

Task 5: Reading

LI: To understand better the text I am reading

- Write 5 questions you have about your book. Don't forget the question marks
- Try to answer your own questions using a prediction or by relating the book to your own experiences.

Task 6: Health and Wellbeing

LI: To identify my core support network

Draw around your hand onto a blank piece of paper. On each finger, write the name of a person you could go to if you need to talk about something private or a worry. They could be a family member, friend or an adult in school.

Feel free to decorate the page however you like.

At the end of the week please think about the following questions together.
