LITERACY

Reading

Pick one of your favourite books to read for fun. You could read to or with someone in your family. Or, try Audible free to listen to a new story: <https://stories.audible.com/start-listen>

Newsround

There is lots of content to access on Newsround.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround>

You could watch the daily news as would in class and note down the key points from the stories or create questions based on what you see and hear or create a news report on Sway.

Comprehension

Comprehension sheets are in class materials. These range from levels B to G. You should be able to fill in your answers directly on the sheet on the computer in a PDF reader. If not, you can print them out.

Dunkirk

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/52797738>

This year sees the 80th anniversary of Dunkirk.

There are reading activities on this important period in history.

Writing

Hand washing and hygiene will be very important in the future when we return to school.

Design an effective poster to help remind younger learners in school what to do. This could be on the computer or handmade.

Here is some advice from Newsround:

NUMERACY

Heinemann Maths

There are also folders of Heinemann maths practise worksheets similar to the kind of sheets we have used as class homework in the past.

The new sets of sheets should also allow you to edit straight onto to the page.

There are Maths Word problem tasks this week, just as we have practised in class before.

These range from Book 2 to 6.

Mystery and code breaker tasks.

These are found in the puzzle folder.

Rosslyn Chapel

The Chapel has provided some excellent activities to try based on the history and features of Roslin.

These are in the Rosslyn Chapel folder.

HEALTH AND WELLBEING

PE

It is important to stay active and physically healthy

Art

Picasso

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Picasso%27s_Blue_Period

Picasso's famous blue period of paints perhaps reflected the artists emotions during a difficult time in his life. You could create your own work of art using limited colours to depict what is happening in the world and your life just now.

Explore the Tate Kids website:
